

Wasted

Donna Summer

Wasted
I'm so wasted
empty since you left me I still need him and want him without him I'm nothing if I can't do something to get him to come home on to me
Wasted
love's been wasted guess I'm not too brainy I was selfish and foolish I used and abused him and laughed when he threatened to walk out but now he's done it
He was like the moon
he had his darker side
but he could be the sun shinning in the light
Wasted
sure I'm wasted
knowing he don't love me
such a sad thing about him to know that I love him and nothing I say or I do will return say I'm wasted
He was like the moon
Wasted
sure I'm wasted
sure I'm wasted
knowing he don't love me.
