

Waiting

Norah Jones

Hush now watch the stars fall into a fire wall
I am waiting here waiting for you to come home
Sinking embers glow
Melting icy snow
I am waiting here,
waiting for you to come home
And I watch them burn when will I ever learn If I wait it doesn't mean you will return(repeat) Now all the stars have gone faded into cracks of dawn and I'm still waiting here waiting for you to come home
I'm waiting here
Waiting for you to come home
