

The Bird and the Worm

Owl City

If you're the bird whenever we pretend it's summer
Then I'm the worm, I know the part is such a bummer
But fair is fair, if my segments get separated
I'll scream and you'll be there Close your eyes (close my eyes)
Slide the cotton off of your shoulder
And feel the shine (feel the shine)
On the hook, so toss me over and cast the line (we'll all try)
I'll throw a party and greet my undersea friends (it depends)
As they arrive (if they arrive)
You and I left our troubles far behind (troubles far behind)
But I still have just one more question on my mind
For all my pals who live in the oceans and the seas
With friends like these, well who needs enemies? If I'm your boy, let's take a shortcut we remember
And we'll enjoy picking apples in late september
Like we've done for years
And we'll take a long walk through the cornfield
And I'll kiss you between the ears If you're my girl, swirl me around your room with feeling
And as we twirl the glow in the dark stars on your ceiling
Will shine for us as love sweeps over the room 'cause we tend to Make each other blush (you make me blush) You and I left our troubles far behind (troubles far behind)
But I still have just one more question on my mind
For all my pals who live in the oceans and the seas
With friends like these, well who needs enemies?
You're the bird, I'm the worm, and it's plain to see
That we were meant to be
We were meant to be
We were meant to be
If you're the bird, if you're the bird then I'm the worm
We were meant to be

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>