Astra

High in the silence it's getting louder from the place we used to be with the .fading is like .being dream to world the moving slowly to the voices in my head from the one waiting here I came to save your time 'cause mine todayfrom the one waiting here I came to save your time away Please show me the way to every motion please take us away so we can be here I came to save your time Please show me the way to every motion please take us away so we can be here Ahh
