

SKIN TO BONE

LINKIN PARK

"Skin To Bone" Skin to bone, steel to rust, ash to ashes, dust to dust.
Will tomorrow, have it's way, with the promises we made?
Skin to bone, steel to rust. Ash to ashes, dust to dust, your deception, my disgust.
When your name is finally drawn, I'll be happy, that you're gone.
Ash to ashes, dust to dust. (Aaah, aaah, aaah, aaah) ash to ashes, dust to dust.
(Aaah, aaah, aaah, aaah) skin to bone and steel to rust. Right to left, left to right, night to day and day to night.
As the starlight, fades to gray, I'll be watching far away.
Right to left and left to right. (Aaah, aaah, aaah, aaah) ash to ashes, dust to dust.
(Aaah, aaah, aaah, aaah) skin to bone and steel to rust.
Will tomorrow have it's way, will the darkness, it betray?
Skin to bone and steel to rust, skin to bone and steel to rust, skin to bone and steel to rust.
