

Pieces

Ella Henderson

You say that it's alright
Right when we live in pieces
But pieces fall apart
A part of you is missing
Mr. Done with thinking
I think we went too far
Now everytime we talk
We say a little less
And everytime we kiss
It ends up in a mess
You say that it's alright
Right when we live in pieces
But pieces fall apart The pieces of my heart
No you can't fake love
Love ain't a game you play
You played me from the start
It starts to end today
today I've had enough
Enough to give you up
Imma put out this place
A place where you can't get me Wo-ah, oh oh
Wo-ah, oh oh
Wo-ah, oh oh And when we started out
Out in those 'I love you' days
The days that seem so bright
You brighten up inside
The side of you I love
The love we had you crucified
Now everytime you laugh
It seems to make me cry
And when we say the truth
We're only telling lies
But when we started out
Out in those 'I love you' days
The days that seem so bright
But I can't make it right No you can't fake love
Love ain't a game you play
You played me from the start
It starts to end today
today I've had enough
Enough to give you up

Wo-ah, oh oh
Wo-ah, oh ohSo watch me run away now, away now
Cause now I'm gonna break out, break out
I'm breaking to the place where I'm alive
And noCan't fake love
Can't fake love
NoooooooNo you can't fake love
Love ain't a game you play
A place where you can't get me
Wo-ah, oh oh
Wo-ah, oh oh
Wo-ah, oh oh
