

Crazy

ICEHOUSE

I've got a pocket full of holes
Head in the clouds the king of fools
You've got a ribbon of rainbows
The sun in your eyes burning through
Could be I'm happy and sad
Could be I'm losing my head over you
Well, you've gotta be crazy, baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazy
So if I'm dreaming don't wake me tonight
If this is all wrong I don't want it right
'Cause you're the one sure thing
When I get lost in the game once again
Hey, I'm a lucky guy
Without a reason and I don't understand
Well, you've gotta be crazy, baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazy
Well, there must be some kind of mistake
To give your heart away, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazy
I've got a pocket full of holes
Head in the clouds the king of fools
You've got a ribbon of rainbows
The sun in your eyes burning through
Could be I'm happy and sad
Could be I'm losing my head over you
Well, you've gotta be crazy, baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazy
Well, there must be some kind of mistake
To give your heart away, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazy
Well, you've gotta be crazy, baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazy
Well, there must be some kind of mistake
To give your heart away, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazy
Well you've gotta be crazy baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be crazy, baby
