

100 Years

Or3o

[GEORGE]

Why did you leave me?
I'm still here wondering
Cause I'm still in love with you When blossoms are blooming I would think of you
Clouds flowing freely made me think of you
So I wrote a little song
Hoping you would sing along
Back then it'd only been a year but I was still in love with you The cool summer breeze would make me think of you
Leaves of a clover made me think of you
So I wrote down every day as I was hoping as I prayed
Back then it'd been around 10 years but I was still in love with you
They call me crazy
They call me mad
The day you left me you were all that I had
But I remember the smile you gave and the bad days became brighter
I hope the best though we're not together A torch burning brightly made me think of you
The sword of a soldier made me think of you
So I wrote a little song
Hoping you would sing along
It'd been 20, 30 years but I was still in love with you The shoes of a walker made me think of you
A dress of a bachelor made me think of you
So I wrote down every day as I was hoping as I prayed
It'd been 40, 50 years but I was still in love with you
They call me crazy
They call me mad
It'd been so many years I could barely stand
But I remember the days we had and the bad days start to disappear
I hope the best though I'm no longer here Musical kittens make me think of you
Every little thing here makes me think of you
So I wrote this little song hoping you would hear someday
It's been a hundred years and I am still in love with you
