

He Ain't Worth Missing

Toby Keith

He's flying high tonight, he's got a brand new lover
Here you come a-runnin', you're looking for some cover
I know you're sad and lonely, I know you're feeling blue
You miss him so much, oh let me get too close to you Oh, he ain't worth missing, oh, we should be kissing
Stop all this foolish wishing that boy ain't worth missing
I know your head is turning, I know your heart is burning
Girl, you gotta listen, don't you know he ain't worth missing?
You know I'm here to save you but you ain't through crying yet
Look at your pretty face all red and soaking wet
I'm gonna try to make him just a memory
Come on, baby, let's get started first thing you got to see
Oh, he ain't worth missing, oh, we should be kissing
Stop all this foolish wishing that boy ain't worth missing
I know your head is turning, I know your heart is burning
Girl, you gotta listen, don't you know he ain't worth missing?
If you need someone to hold you
Someone to ease your pain
Well, I'll be holding steady, girl, when you get ready
I'm gonna show you love is a good thing
Yeah, love is a good thing
Oh, he ain't worth missing, oh, we should be kissing
Stop all that foolish wishing that boy ain't worth missing
I know your head is turning, I know your heart is burning
Girl, you gotta listen, don't you know he ain't worth missing?
Oh, he ain't worth missing, oh, we should be kissing
Stop all that foolish wishing
I know your head is turning, I know your heart is burning
Girl, you gotta listen
