Crave You (Adventure Club Remix)

Flight Facilities

Why can't you want me like the other boys do?

They stare at me while I stare at you

Why can't I keep you safe as my own?

One moment I have you the next you are gone
Rehearsed steps on an empty stage

That boy's got my heart in a silver cage

Why can't you want me like the other boys do?

at me while I crave youI walked into the room dripper

They stare at me while I crave youI walked into the room dripping in gold

Yeah dripping in gold

I walked into the room dripping in gold Dripping in gold

A wave of heads did turn, or so I've been told

Or so I've been told

My heart broke when I saw you kept your gaze controlled Oh I cannot solve

Why can't you want me like the other boys do?

They stare at me while I stare at you

Why can't I keep you safe as my own?

One moment I have you the next you are gone

Rehearsed steps on an empty stage

Rehearsed steps on an empty stage
That boy's got my heart in a silver cage

Why can't you want me like the other boys do? They stare at me while I crave youIt's true I crave you

Crave you

It's true I crave youLet's just stop and think, before I lose face Surely I can't fall, into a game of chase Around his little finger, that boy has got me curled

I try to reach out, but he's in his own world
This boy's got my head tied in knots with all his games
I simply want him more because he looks the other way

Why can't you want me like the other boys do?

They stare at me while I stare at you

Why can't I keep you safe as my own?

One moment I have you the next you are gone

Rehearsed steps on an empty stage

That boy's got my heart in a silver cage

Why can't you want me like the other boys do?

They stare at me while I crave you

I am craving you
