

Hamoia Beach

Gomez

Oh no, why can't you get along?
Okay, I know its not my place.
I've gotta say somethin'
I've gotta say somethin'
I've gotta speakShe'll never leave
And you can never throw her out
Impossible to conceive
You'd rather be with than without
That's just the fear talkin
That's just the fear talkin
That's just the fearDon't let it take you
Like it nearly took me
Fear
Don't let it fool you
Like it nearly fooled me
Fear
Remember the good old days
Well love is like a dragonfly
So beautiful
It will die
And disappear before your eyes
I'm no philosopher
I am no poet
I'm just trying to help you outDon't let it fool you
Like it nearly fooled me
Fear
Don't let it take you
Like it nearly took meSo you sit and wait
For another man to take your place
And when, when he comes
Would you welcome him with open arms
You'll feel a hundred years younger
You'll feel a hundred years younger
You'll feel no fearDon't let it take you
Like it nearly took me
Fear
Don't let it fool you
Like it nearly fooled me
Fear
Don't let it kill you
Like it nearly killed me

Fear
