

Choir

Guy Sebastian

I know it's weird to say this
But I've been thinking 'bout it lately
Reminiscing about us in Vegas
Drinking like we're famous
Man those days were crazy But your book ran of pages
And now I wish I never waited
To tell you out of all the moments in my life
The ones I got to share with you
Were probably my favourite I know you're looking down on us
Yeah I'm missing you bro
I hope you're proud of us
At least I know you made it home
And I know you're not alone
Cause now you're singing with a choir
Now you're dancing with a crew
You ain't doing this solo
We all ridin' with you No one can put out your fire
Nobody filling your shoes
Cause now you're singing with a choir
We all ridin' with you
Yeah yeah Yeah, yeah we fill up all our days with Workin' and grindin' just to make ends meet
Too busy to call we'll catch up next week
And then it gets to next week
And we say maybe next week
And then before you know
We all feeling old
Asking ourselves
Where did my friends go
So don't wait till they go home Cause now you're singing with a choir
Now you're dancing with a crew
You ain't doing this solo
We all ridin' with you No one can put out your fire
Nobody filling your shoes
Cause now you're singing with a choir
We all ridin' with you
Yeah yeah Someday I know my friend
I'm gonna see you again
And when I do you better have a part for me
You sing the melody
And I'll take the harmony Cause we ain't done making music yet
We got some more sound checks

And this time we gonna have about a million voices
Singing, dancing
Party in your mansion Cause now you're singing with a choir
Now you're dancing with a crew
You ain't doing this solo
We all ridin' with you No one can put out your fire
Nobody filling your shoes
Cause now you're singing with a choir
We all ridin' with you
Yeah yeah We all ridin' with you
Yeah yeah
We all ridin' with you
Yeah yeah
We all ridin' with you
With you
Yeah yeah We all ridin' with you
We all ridin' with you
We all ridin' with you
With you
Yeah yeah
