

Beautiful Mourning

Machine Head

Fuck you all
My redemption is knowing
This will be over
My aggression, I fear I've lost control
Who is this man I see?
Mirror reflects a stranger
Fist shatters the despair
Awake the pain to anger
How do I close thine eyes of murder?
How do I close thine eyes of murder
Staring into me?
My obsession is dying
Sinking me deeper
My depression
This world has disavowed
Razor at wrist I seethe
The flesh is peeled apart now
Gone is my faded dream
Failure, I welcome in thou
How do I close thine eyes of murder?
How do I close thine eyes of murder
Staring into me?
Oh, this lifetime in sorrow
God, let the angels die
(Let the angels die)
This is our last goodbye
(Our last goodbye)
In love and death we cry
(Death we cry)
Our last goodbye, go
No, no, no
Spit in the face of loss
Coward, my own self-hatred
No more I bear this cross
Struggle and rise from the dead
This lifetime in sorrow
(The angels die)
This is our last goodbye
(Our last goodbye)
In love and death we cry
