Hunter (Henry Fong Remix)

Galantis

I am the hunter, I am the great unknown

Only my love can conquer

I am the, I am the hunter

I am the hunter, into the wild we go

Give up your heart, surrender

'Cause I am the, I am the hunterWe've been on this road to a place that, one day, we'll know

Adventure to the other side

Searching high and low for the treasure deep in your soul

The fortune teller's always rightGot the red eyes in the night

Like a panther, outta sight

Gonna sing my battle cry

'Cause I am the, I am the, I am the

I am the hunter, I am the great unknown

Only my love can conquer

I am the, I am the hunter

I am the hunter, into the wild we go

Give up your heart, surrender

'Cause I am the, I am the hunterI am the

I am the, I am the

I am the

I am the, I am the, I am the Strangers wild and free

Through the flames, you're all that I see

A force you, that you can't deny

Heed my calling

Lock and load, come running to me

Dancing through the midnight

Got the red eyes in the night

Like a panther, outta sight

Gonna sing my battle cry

'Cause I am the, I am the, I am theI am the hunter, I am the great unknown

Only my love can conquer

I am the, I am the hunter

I am the hunter, into the wild we go

Give up your heart, surrender

'Cause I am the, I am the hunterI am the

I am the, I am the

I am theI am the, I am the, I am the

I am the, I am the, I am the hunt-

I am the, I am the, I am the

I am the, I am the, I am the hunt-

I am-I am, I am-I am, I am-I am

Hunter
