

No Smoke Without a Fire

Bad Company

Ooh, you're like a book with a page torn out
You can turn from a whisper to a shout, ooh yeah
You come running just as fast as you can, into the arms of another man, yeah
But you can do what you wanna do now, tell me what you wanna say
You can take what you wanna take, babe, take it all away
Oh oh, there's no smoke without a fire, and there's no heat without a flame
Oh oh, there's no love without desire, but I won't play your games
Ooh, you've got the looks that can turn a head
You've got a turn that can leave a man dead, ooh yeah
You keep tellin' me our love is alright
You disappear, you don't come home all night
Just tell me what you wanna do now, tell me where you wanna go
It's your life, you can do what you want, baby let me know
Oh oh, there's no smoke without a fire, and there's no heat without a flame
Oh oh, there's no love without desire, but I won't play your games
Please don't ask me why 'Cos I can't quite explain, I'm like a moth to your flame
Yeah, just tell me what you wanna do now, tell me where you wanna go
It's your life, you can do what you want, baby let me know, yeah
Oh oh, there's no smoke without a fire, and there's no heat without a flame
Oh oh, there's no love without desire, but I won't play your games
- let's talk about it
Oh oh, there's no smoke without a fire, and there's no heat without a flame
Oh oh, there's no love without desire, but I won't play your games
