

We Arrived Right On Time

Rancid

We arrived right on time
We arrived right on time
Right on time Oh, a punch drunk fella wears a crown of thorns
An angel met under closed off fort
And April 6th can never be brought
And a handsome fella can never be caught Got to find a road where they really can scope
With a simmered sun and a hard sailing boat
And they just take, take a vampire's throat
We run and we pack, we run all night long
Broken jeans, it's a ghetto, a mosaic of molten steel
We arrived right on time
We arrived right on time
Right on time Got to find a road where they really can scope
With a simmered sun and a hard sailing boat
And they just take, take a vampire's throat
We run and we pack, we run all night long Broken jeans, it's a ghetto, a mosaic of molten steel
We arrived right on time
We arrived right on time
Right on time
C'mon We arrived right on time
We arrived right on time
Right on time
