

Feed Us

Serj Tankian

Maybe we believe
she was ready to go
in the morning light
maybe you believe that she was made of gold In the east where you killed her
You lead us
When you need to feed us you comfortably delete us when you need your feed us You cheat us when you feed us with the lie
stars look out and
cheat us when you feed us with the lie
stars look out
Goodbye, goodbye
she speaks unrehearsed
languages from skin
in the morning light
painting shadows on the faces of the dead in front of their widows you cheat us when you
feed us with the lie stars look out and
cheat us when you
before it's too late
do you know that life is ending as we go, the dots connecting we had our chance to save the garden as it dies, our souls will harden with these words chastising your conscience
we're breaking through and praying for transcendence.
but you deceived us all now
you cheat us when you
cheat us when you
stars look out
cheat us when you

cheat us when you
stars look out.
