

War of the Universe

Luca Turilli

"Cosmic terror of the universe // BEWARE
Mighty enemies of mystic wars // ANGELS CALL
Soon will be born a mortal who will dare
STARS WANT IT FALL
There Between two astral worlds -
Lie dark seeds of eternal war -
Far beyond the silent hole where -
Meteors paint a crystal storm -
Through the eons without space,
Where swallowed is the concept:
Time
Systems burning and colliding
Form the chaos, dark and light
Black holes,
Comets,
Blazing thunders...
Fragments of the divine born
(Chorus):
War of the Universe,
Of cosmic energies,
Of phantoms riding
The genesis of all,
Sons of the Universe,
Forever fighting
Through every age
Condemned to face this // LONG HOLY WAR
Parallax of suns create -
Geometry of moons unborn -
Spread the knowledge of the creatures -
Between curious there and not -
Comets' riders -
Astral fighters -
Heroes of celestial shores
(Chorus)
Cosmic terror of the universe // BEWARE
Mighty enemies of mystic wars // ANGELS CALL
Soon will be born a mortal who will dare
