

Who Are You (feat. Olivier Daysoul)

C2C

La, la la
La la laI feel like a pimp
No a man in the middle
Is for gettin' ruled
I know there's a light at the end
But the tunnel, it seems so narrowTrying to find my way but (no), but my shoes are feeling heavy
They say I'm always dragging my feet
Now the world is measured on how fast you can get it
So I'm left behind before I can reach
Before I can reach, yeah
Makin' a life for yourself
It's getting harder everyday
Who are you!
Pressure to find a personality
But I'm trying to find a new way
Who are you!
Life isn't as long as you think
You can't pause it and go on your way
Who are you!
Time ain't father to you
And it will never be same
Who are you!Lalala
Who are you
Lalala
Surrounded, always takin' part in the havisation of your soul
But just cause you like the way it looks don't mean it's going to suit
Don't mean it's going to suit ya
Now it's back composed and I'm not in a hurry
Could you say that in a? of time
Before you even blink
The day is to the night
And the ball would drop the 13th time
Do you wondering why?
Yeah, yeahI'm making a move
One time over base the rules
Don't wanna be stack in this tale
I'ma never is tell what you sing is close the Dumbo
Compose the faith and all the things
And sing things to favor us, to test all things
Gotta be move in a dream, I know!
Sometimes I could be slow and end the rest of the thing

For rest the show no better have a shuffle on my ever refrain
Get back on a bike
Better lim hard, I generally like
Wanna be soft, favor the world
Begin example to all the boys and girls
Makin' a life for yourself
It's getting harder everyday
Who are you!
Pressure to find a personality
But I'm trying to find a new way
Who are you!
Life isn't as long as you think
You can't pause it and go on your way
Who are you!
Time ain't father to you
And it will never be same
Who are you!
Makin' a life for yourself
It's getting harder everyday
Pressure to find a personality
But I'm trying to find a new way
Who you are?
Life isn't as long as you think
You can't pause it and go on your way
Who you are?
Time ain't father to you
And it will never be same
Who are you!
Who are you?
Makin' a life for yourself
It's getting harder everyday
Who are you!
Pressure to find a personality
But I'm trying to find a new way
Who are you!
Life isn't as long as you think
You can't pause it and go on your way
Who are you!
Time ain't father to you
And it will never be same
Who are you!
