

If You Can't Find Love

Sting & Shaggy

If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
Then how you going to find yourself? If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
Then how you going to find yourself? A man owns a big house,
A man got plenty money,
A man got red wine to drink,
In the land of milk and honey. A man's got a job,
He's got some status and self-respect,
But still he's never satisfied,
So, what did he expect?
If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
Then how you going to find yourself? Don't have no honey, don't have no wife,
Loneliness a kill yuh when yuh go to sleep at night.
Yuh have everything in life,
But it nuh feel right if a woman is not by your side. Ain't gotta fuss, ain't gotta fight,
Just find a girl that yuh know is definitely yuh type.
Yuh have everything in life,
But it nuh feel right if that woman is not by your side. A man got no worries,
A man got no strife,
A man got a million distractions,
To keep him up at night.
There's a hole in his pocket,
There's no holes in his shoes,
But there's a hole in his life,
You wonder, what's a man to do? If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
Then how you going to find yourself? He talks to you of freedom,
He talks to you of choice,
As something he can't jeopardize,
You tell him there's no compromise,
There's ghosts that must be exorcised,
One day he'll have to recognize. If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,
Then how you going to find yourself? If you can't find love,
If you can't find love,

If you can't find love,
Then how you going to find yourself? Love is the only thing can get you outta trouble,
You living life, but you living in the rubble,
Love is the only thing can get you outta trouble,
Free ur mind, dig urself outta the rubble. Love is the only thing can get you outta trouble,
You living life, but you living in the rubble,
Love is the only thing can get you outta trouble,
Free ur mind, dig urself outta the rubble.
