Higher (feat. Labrinth)

Sigma

I have given all myself
All that I have left to give
All the reasons I confront
No more reason left to live
If that ain't enough

Oh, no no

Tell me why it's not enoughEven when you let me down

I forgive you in the end

What goes round comes back around

So I'll wait for you till then

If that's not enough, oh no no

Tell me what would be enough, be enough, be enough

And what is love

If there's still a chance of something

And what is love

If it's building up to nothing

But never see how far we've come

We keep looking at the sun

So what is love

If we're still searching for something? Get higher, higher, higher

We keep looking up

Higher, higher, higher

But we're still not high enough

Higher, higher, higher

We keep looking up

Higher, higher, higher

But we're still not high enough

Take my heart back from your hands

And my pride back from your sheets

I'll believe while I still can

Taking back the best of me

If this ain't enough, no, no, no

Then I guess I've had enough, had enough, had enough, had enoughAnd what is love

If there's still a chance of something

And what is love

If it's building up to nothing

But never see how far we've come

We keep looking at the sun

So what is love

If we're still searching for something? Get higher, higher, higher

We keep looking up

Higher, higher, higher

But we're still not high enough
Higher, higher, higher
We keep looking up
Higher, higher, higher
But we're still not high enough
