

Gentleman

Cody Simpson

If you ever need to cry
I'll wipe your tears right from your eyes
Oh yes, I will
If you can't fall asleep at night
I'll sing to you a lullaby
Oh yes, I will Can I be your gentleman?
I'll be as gentle as I can
Girl, what would it take
To be your gentleman?
I swear I'll be the luckiest man
If I could be your gentleman
I wanna be one you hug
When the world is just too much
I'll hear what you say
I wanna be one you trust
I'll keep the secrets between us I'll hear what you say
Can I be your gentleman?
I'll be as gentle as I can
Girl, what would it take?
I swear I'll be gentleman
I swear I'll be the luckiest man
If I could be your gentleman, yeah I will open every door for you, girl
'Cause my lady should be first
I'll throw my Jacket over a puddle,
'Cause my lady should be first
So baby take me place
If you'd like to sit on me
Just say you will
I'll love you with all of me
I just pray that you believe
That I could be your gentleman
