

Amy

Green Day

Is your heart singing out of tune
are your eyes just sing the blues?
Dirty records from another time
Some bloods stain on your shoes
No one really knows about your soul
And I barely really know your name
Burning rythm and posting lies
And I bunch you full drown in shame
Amy don't you go
I want you around
Singing whoooooahhh please don't go
Do you wanna be a friend of mine?
Do you wanna be a friend of mine?
Did you tattoo a lucky charm?
To keeps out of harms pain
Warning all of evil signs
But never really kept you safe
Now you're too young for the golden age
Cause the record's been replaced
21's gone without a trace
And you walked away from your drink
Amy don't you go
I want you around
Singing whoooooah please don't go
Do you wanna be a friend of mine?
Do you wanna be a friend of
Amy please don't go
Amy please don't go
Is your heart singing out of tune?
Are your eyes just sing the blues?
Dirty records from another time
Some bloods stain on your shoes
May I have this last dance?
By chance if we should meet
Can you write me a lullaby?
So we can sing you to sleep
Amy don't you go
I want you around
Singing whoooooaahhh please don't go
Do you wanna be a friend of mine?
Do you wanna be a friend of mine?
Do you wanna be a friend of mine?
Do you wanna be a friend of mine?
