

Everything Must Change

Paul Young

Everything Must Change
I was never one to back out of an argument and say I was wrong, even when I'd seen the other side I'd hide my foolishness and carry on But still I'd be embarrassed 'cos they'd see what happened and they's play along until I back myself into a corner I would only realise when they had gone
And like a dream, a life, a reason,
everything must change
(Everything, Everything Must Change)
And like a world, this earth and seasons
everything must change
(Everything, Everything Must Change)
In the same way when we disagree
I wouldn't be the one to back down Still I'd know that you had faith in me Tell me something, am I letting you down?
'Cos when I woke up and I saw the note you pressed into the mirror frame but it was easy to be angry at you but deep inside I know we share the blame
And like a dream, a life, a reason,
everything must change
(Everything, Everything Must Change)
And like a world, this earth and seasons,
everything must change
(Everything, Everything Must Change)
I'm going back to the top to start myself off but first of all somethings I need to know When I'm scared of being wrong again, won't you be the one I turn to to let me know, oh, let me know, oh Please, let me be right for once 'cos right now all I feel I do is wrong and it's never too late to learn about love and this victim needs your hand to hold on
And like a dream, a life, a reason,
everything must change
(Everything, Everything Must Change)
And like a world, this earth and seasons,
everything must change
(Everything, Everything Must Change)
And like a dream, a life, a reason,
everything must change

And like a world, this earth and seasons,
everything must change
(Everything Must Change, Everything Must Change)
And like a dream, a life, a reason,
everything must change
And like a world, this earth and seasons,
everything must change...
