

Man On the Run (Nic Chagall Rmx)

Dash Berlin, Cerf, Mitiska & Jaren

You stole a kiss
And stone my heart
Made me a fool right from the start Wouldn't have been so bad if saved
This little plan it fell apart if i were you i dare not speak
i run like hell
And hurts like seeing tomorrow it's such a travesty
The way you say our love should be
As such a tragedy
Think you can just break my heart and leave me
Oh you better run now
Man on the run
Playing for fun when you leave, leave me undone These lips are sealed i'll never speak
Your name & loving memory
So don't you try to make amends That's what you get for playing me if i were you
i dare not speak
i run like hell
And hurts like seeing tomorrow Break my heart and leave me
Man on the run
