

Hislerim (feat. Zerrin)

Serhat Durmus

My soul is reborn,
So deep... my feelings...My shoulder filled with burdens,
But I was not giving up,I am not special or something like that,
But when you were here I was always felt like this,
I felt that way,,Everything will be burned to ashes?
You remember that too, it is late...

I felt that way...

I am not special or something like that,
But when you were here I was always felt like this,
I felt that way,,Everything will be burned to ashes?
You remember that too, it is late...

It is too late...

I felt that way...
