

Can't Hear Well

Liars

I, won't walk away, paces
To another world or sun
Here, I won the war chasing
You, half of the way back through tomeTime I'll waste
In years
How I wait
For a signDon't knock on the way they go to war
You'll never play the fantasy againI, I will not waste conquest
To another wounded tearI wanna feel
Fly home
Can't hear well
