

Rules Meant to Be Broken

First Blood

LET'S GO

For all the promises BROKEN

For the lives and dreams that we've BROKEN

For our faith in a system that's BROKEN

So many rules meant to be BROKEN NOW
So many rules must be broken now
Burn down, tear down, break this...

BREAK THIS LEGACY DOWN!
Find the reason, now it's time to begin

And recognize the evils of this system

Open your eyes before the years drag you down

In a civilization that is drowning in -

War, hate, death, and division

Reject this lesson of aggression that keeps on teaching us...

"If there is something you want and you have the means then you TAKE IT"
"If you can't change their will then you BREAK IT"
Force is king and it need not be spoken

So many rules meant to be BROKEN NOW
BREAK THIS LEGACY DOWN!
Every barrier, every wall must be broken NOW

Every unjust law must be broken NOW

Every form of division must be broken NOW
Every gear in this corrupt machine must be broken NOW

Every link in their chains BROKEN

Every lock in their cages BROKEN

Every beam in their structures BROKEN

So many rules meant to be BROKEN NOW

BROKEN!

So many rules have to be BROKEN NOW

BROKEN!

BREAK THIS LEGACY DOWN!
