Young & Rude

Abir

[Verse 1]
Woke up in an empty apartment
Another night I fell asleep in my shoes
It's getting August, now I do it too often
I'm losing my focus, I'm losing my cool
I'm tired of making the same excuses
Tryna' act like everything's okay
I'm [?] after text
'Bout the shit I regret
Tryna' clean up my mess, and I[Pre-Chorus]
He's driving, can't stop it
I'm falling down
He running after you, boy
I can't stop it
[Chorus]
You know that I'm young and I'm pretty rude
Just a bad girl with an attitude
I've been hangin' around, I've been running loose
But I can give it all for you
I've been breaking hearts, I've been breaking rules
Just a bad girl with an attitude
I've been hangin' around, I've been running loose
But I can give it all for you([?])[Verse 2]
Party 'til I feel like I'm useless
I know that I'm here I'ma try to forget
I'm always actin' like I'm here for this bullshit
I'm losing my focus all over again
I'll probably drink a little more than no reason
I'll probably say a couple things I ain't meanin'
I'm gonna' round after round
And it's breaking me down
Tryna' figure it out, and I
[Pre-Chorus]
He's driving, can't stop it
I'm falling down
He running after you, boy
I can't stop it[Chorus]
You know that I'm young and I'm pretty rude
Just a bad girl with an attitude
I've been hangin' around, I've been running loose
But I can give it all for you
I've been breaking hearts, I've been breaking rules

Just a bad girl with an attitude
I've been hangin' around, I've been running loose
But I can give it all for you([?])[Outro]
You know that I'm young and I'm pretty rude
Just a bad girl with an attitude
I've been hangin' around, I've been running loose
But I can give it all for you
