Vertigo (feat. Jordin Sparks)

Jason Derulo

Hey girl, I know this shit might sound crazy
Before you get in bed, though, in those heels
Hey girl, now I know why you waited
Had to be sure that I was worth the thrill

Ladies come and go but you got something different

Had me so addicted from the start

And Id never known all this loving Id be missing

If I didnt work my way into your heartYou give me vertigo, vertigo

The bed, the floor, the kitchen

Dont really matter long as I get

Vertigo, vertigo

Im tucked, all bottled inside

Youre a bad baby, youre making me sweat

Tell me that its cool that Im stuck on you

Like your birthday suit

You give me vertigo, that vertigoThe way that you please me sets this room on fire

Im burning with desire in this bed

So if Im dreaming please dont wake me up

If all of this is happening in my head

Waited for so long

But what you got is different

Had me so addicted from the startBoy, Id never known all the shit that I was missing If I hadnt worked my way into your heartYou give me vertigo, vertigo

The bed, the floor, the kitchen

Dont really matter long as I get

Vertigo, vertigo

Im tucked, all bottled inside

Youre a bad baby, youre making me sweat

Tell me that its cool that Im stuck on you

Like your birthday suit

You give me vertigo, that vertigoIm working downtown

You all in my head

This love that we found

We'll never regret

Were empty inside

Im filling you up with our vertigo

You waking me up

To nothing to sayRight here in this bed

We stay here all day

And my head be spinning

You do that to me with that vertigoYou give me vertigo, vertigo

The bed, the floor, the kitchen

Dont really matter long as I get Vertigo, vertigoIm tucked, all bottled inside Youre a bad baby, youre making me sweat Tell me that its cool that Im stuck on you Like your birthday suit You give me vertigo, vertigo Say you give me vertigo, vertigo Baby, oh Vertigo, vertigo Say you give me Say you give me Vertigo, that vertigo
