

New for You

Reeve Carney

Ooh
I can't forget you
I can't deny
If I surrender
You'll hold me never let go
Your love's a memory Moving as one
my heart's a secret
under your tongue
crying forever
deep in your eyes
Who is victors of you and i
They must flat into the tail light under the truth
but everything's new for you and i would die a thousand days but to defend your happiness my love
yours is like a wave upon a open shore everytime we fought
i only want you more if virtues and the suffering are the heart i know our love's the teardrops sent from the sky My life was a shadow until i knew the sorrow the silent crying for you
i stand defenceless deep in your eyes someday
give me your love I'm alive when you want everything changes everything's new baby i'm new for you
