

Zero

Alter Bridge

Now there is a light
In the dark some will say
There is a grace up high
There is a beauty
That some can behold
Not I, not I
There is a power
That's felt from the shore
There is a force
That won't break
All of these things
To me are no more
I'll change, I'll change What in the hell have you done?
Cast aside all that you love
Sorrows you never outrun
Zero
Nothing for you
Is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you whole How many times
Have you felt all alone
How many tears have you cried?
Or called out in vain
For a god to behold
Inside, inside
How many fires
You let die in your heart
How many storms
Must you face?
Left out to fight
For yourself in the cold
No faith, no faith
So nothing to lean on this time
Nothing is left to decide
All that you've known, you deny Zero
Nothing for you
Is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you whole Zero
Nothing for you
Is ever good enough
Zero

Nothing makes you whole
Go now, surrender
You can't take no more
And just cry out
Surrender
Your faith is no more-Solo-What in the hell have you done?
Cast aside all that you love
The sorrows you never outrun
Just look what you've becomeZero
Nothing for you
Is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you wholeZero
Nothing for you
Is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you whole-Solo-
