??? (Eric Nam) - Congratulations (Feat. Marc E. Bassy) Lyrics

Genre : R&B/Soul

Release Date : 2019-11-14

Language : English I'll bring balloons you get cups

Dress up in your favorite tux

Champagne for the two of us

I'll set the table yea I'm bringing that ring I bought

You do with it what you want

A souvenir or some junk

You decide tonight

Congratulations

You're finally leaving

Let's throw a party here tonight

And toast to the end of you and I

Congratulations

You finally mean it

Let's throw a party here tonight

And raise up a glass

To our last goodbye Oh oh congratulations

Our last goodbye

You leave and I'll pave the way

Let's end on a high note baby

We both knew the day would come

When we'd say

our last goodbye oh yea

I always was there for you

But you made it unbearable

The worst part is all my friends knew about it before I did yea

The rumors got too loud round town

You was behind my back bending round

And don't think

I don't know it girl

That's why I'm sad to see you go so Congratulations

You're finally leaving

Let's throw a party here tonight

And toast to the end of you and I

Congratulations

You finally mean it

Let's throw a party here tonight

And raise up a glass
to our last goodbyeOoh ooh Congratulations
For our last goodbyeCongratulations baby
Now that you're finally leaving
Let's throw a party here
And toast to you and I
Congratulations baby
I guess you really mean it
And toast to you and ICongratulations
And toast to the end of you and I
Congratulations
You finally mean it
And raise up a glass
To our last goodbye
