Can't Deny My Love

Brandon Flowers

Open up to the night Our bed is underneath the heavy moon Cast a doubt like a shadow walking Through the corners of the roomI always thought I'd have a full tank to go (But not tonight, you're running low) I always thought I'd find my own way What's going on in your head now Maybe something I said, I know that you've been living in the past What's going on in your head now Maybe something I said now It's driving me crazy You can try to lie But you're not gonna, not gonna deny No you're not gonna, not gonna deny my love And you can run to the hillside And you can close your eyes But you're not gonna, not gonna deny No you're not gonna, not gonna deny my love You can't deny my loveThe eyes of God Watching over us so we don't break the golden rules The seven seas, have we learned Or are we sailing on a ship of fools I always thought I'd have a full tank to go (But not tonight, you're running low) I always thought we'd get there someday It's driving me crazy You can try to lie But you're not gonna, not gonna deny No you're not gonna, not gonna deny my love And you can run to the hillside And you can close your eyes But you're not gonna, not gonna deny No you're not gonna, not gonna deny my love You can't deny my loveWhen you close your eyes, tell me what you see Locked up in your room, is there any room for me In the spoils of your mercy, in the reverence of your bed In the cradle of the morning what was it that you said What's going on in your head now You're not gonna, not gonna deny

> No you're not gonna, not gonna deny my love And you can run to the hillside And you can close your eyes

But you're not gonna, not gonna deny No you're not gonna, not gonna deny my love You can't deny my love
