

Back Together

Jill Scott

Pieces of me was scattered blowing in the cold in different directions truth, truth, truth be told Oh, then I looked into your eyes everything felt like it could be alright you went and put me back together
back together again Going through heartache, aw you know, I think I lost my mind for a time and couldn't get better couldn't get no better no matter, no matter how hard I tried Then I, I looked into your eyes and everything felt like it could be alright
You went and put me back together
you went and put me back together
back together again
Somebody sing
Put me back together again
Somebody sing
Hey!
Put me back together again
Oh! Now I'm walking in the sunshine and everything feels so right You went and put me right back together Whooh!
put me right back together baby, look at what you did Oh
You did it
back together again
back together again
back together again
And I feel like I'm walking on air, baby Thank you.
