All Aboard (feat. Lil Wayne)

Romeo Santos

Hey... Escucha las palabras de Romeo

You need this in your life (yeah) ven aquiI ain't gonna give you instructions

You just gotta follow my lead

Your body's making sounds like percussion

I'm orchestrating your fantasiesAnd when you wake up feeling like a dream

You ain't gon' believe it...

And everything u need...

Girl you're gon' receive it tonight

And I know your condition

I'ma make you feel alive

Relax and feel the ride

So act like it's the last time

The last chance for you to go there

And girl it's for you baby

The last ride,

Girl you won't find this feeling nowhere

You better hurry 'cause the train is leavingAll aboardCome on... montate mami

I ain't using words as persuasion

I don't got a reason to speak

It's always a special occasion

Every time you're laying with me

And when you wake up feeling like a dream

You ain't gon' believe it...

And everything u need...

Girl you're gonna receive it tonight

And I know your condition

I'ma make you feel alive

Relax and feel the rideSo act like it's the last time

The last chance for you to go there

And girl it's for you baby

The last grind, girl you wont

Find this feeling nowhere

You better hurry cause the train is leaving All aboard She want to ride that wayne train

So I'ma bag her like baggage claim

We smoke that mary not plain jane

And everything is just fine

I keep a picture of her smile

In the back of my mind

I grab the back of her head

She throw it back like rewindI put her face in the pillow

Taste it a little Shawty said she feels like She sitting on a missileI say 5, 4, 3, 2 The 1 can only be you Shorty said oh lord I'm coming I say me too My love has no equal, Get on top And if you ride this train Get off at your stopThis is the last time The last chance for you to go there There's one ticket left And girl it's for you baby The last ride girl you wont find this feeling nowhere You better hurry 'cause the train is leaving Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
