

Julia Says

Wet Wet Wet

And here I go again
Through the backstreets of my mind
It seems my love was standing still
Who's sorry now? (Sorry now)
It's funny how I didn't know it Here we go again
Fighting things we never win
It seems our love was standing still
Ooooh I'm sorry now (sorry now)
It's funny how (funny how)
I don't feel the love
I just hear the words
Julia says
She doesn't know what it's all about
She doesn't seem to care at all
Open your eyes and see
Love hurts I won't be fooled again
Looking for the dream I couldn't find
The dream for me was left behind
Oh, I'm sorry now (sorry now)
It's funny how (funny how)
I don't feel the love
I just hear the words Julia says
She doesn't know what it's all about
She doesn't seem to care at all
Open your eyes and see
Love hurts
Julia, please
Open your eyes and see Julia wants to be on her own
Sharing a thought she's all alone
Dreaming of things she wants to be
Where Julia don't belong Julia said
She doesn't know what it's all about
She doesn't know Julia, please
Open your eyes and see
C'mon, Julia
Open your eyes and see You don't know what it's all about
Julia, please, Julia, please, Julia
You don't care at all, as I want you
C'mon, c'mon, c'mon, c'mon
Julia, Julia, Julia
