

She Moves (Far Away) [feat. Graham Candy]

Alle Farben

Far away, far away in the land where the sun will never rise
Far away, far away in the place with marmalade skies
Far away, far away in the land where the sun will hide its eyes
Far away, far away in the place with marmalade skies All alone she moves
Into a broken paradise surrounded by the colored lights
On and on she moves

Into a paradise without day and without night Far away, far away in the land where the sun will never rise

Far away, far away in the place with marmalade skies
Carry on, carry on, deeper into the rabbit hole
Carry on, carry on until you reach the hallway made of gold
All alone she moves
Into a broken paradise surrounded by the colored lights
On and on she moves

Into a paradise without day and without night Ah, ah, ah
Ah, ah, ah
Ah, ah, ah

Ah, ah, ah All alone she moves
Into a broken paradise surrounded by the colored lights
On and on she moves

Into a paradise without day and without night
All alone she moves
Into a broken paradise surrounded by the colored lights
On and on she moves

Into a paradise without day and without night
night
