Holding Back (feat. Gallant)

SG Lewis

Maybe I'm indifferent
Maybe I'm not thinking straight again
Drought and indecisious
I can't see no one to let you inI know I shouldn't play these games
But why would you think that I could change

In the morning

You're telling me time is on his side

But you never make it out alive

If we parted

Maybe I'm holding back

Maybe I'm holding back

Do you want it?

Do you want it?

So maybe I'm holding back

Maybe I'm holding back

Do you want it?

Do you want? Maybe I'm holding back

Maybe I'm holding back

Maybe I'm holding back

Maybe I'm holding backDon't be understanding

Hold me to my word and in my place, oh baby

So I won't be a pauper

Digging my imaginary grave, hold on baby

And I know I shouldn't feel like this

But solitude's harder to resist

When I'm falling, oh

And darling I'm feeling outta place

But I really wanna be the saint

That you're calling, callingSo maybe I'm holding back

Maybe I'm holding back

Do you want it?

Do you want it?

So maybe I'm holding back

Maybe I'm holding back

Do you want it?

Do you want? Maybe I'm holding back

Maybe I'm holding back
