

Treason

M. Pokora

Never thought a girl would try and play me like this
Never thought I'd be a fool betrayed by a kiss
The love we had between us did it exist
I'll never know now I'll never know So come along with your alibis
They're just evil lies to me
I can see it written in your eyes
This is no surprise
So tell it to your others baby The words I'm hearing are sounding like treason
The way I'm feeling it's leaving me cold
The air between us is dropping to freezin'
What's the reason
For your treason
Ooh yeah Guess messing with my boy is setting the tone
I'm left in pieces and it's hurting me so
Coz I gave you everything my body and soul
We're so over we're so over You and me forever just the other day
But now I'm so betrayed
There's no way you could make it better Refrain The worlds I'm hearing are sounding like treason
Wish I was dreaming it's hurting for real
I think I've heard enough and I should be leaving
No more teasing
This is treason
Guilty as charged you left me for dust
Why'd you do it girl
Tore me apart now you're breaking my trust
Why you're breaking my world
I never thought girl you'd push it that far
Wanna push it now
But I guess I learned just who you really are Come on come on Refrain Never thought a girl would try and play me like this
Never thought I'd be a fool betrayed by a kiss
The love we had between us did it exist
I'll never know now I'll never know Refrain The worlds I'm hearing are sounding like treason
Wish I was dreaming it's hurting for real
I think I've heard enough and I should be leaving
No more teasing
This is treason
