Mary Go Round

Musiq

Maybe my mind is playing tricks on me But I could've sworn That the kiss that was meant truly for me Is leaving me tornHow can love be so kind and so gentle And turn and be so cold And why must my arms feel so empty For what my heart still holdsMary how could you go Around and hurt me so I'd have tried so hard to please you baby But I just can't seem to babyMary how could you go Around and hurt me so I'd have tried so hard to please you baby But I just can't seem to baby There was there something I could've done To change this outcome here As if I blinked my eyes and suddenly She up and disappearedHow can love escape your grasp Without you ever letting go And until she returns to my offer I may never knowMary how could you go Around and hurt me so I'd have tried so hard to please you baby But I just can't seem to babyMary how could you go Around and hurt me so I'd have tried so hard to please you baby But I just can't seem to baby MARYHOWCOULDYOUBESOCRUELTOME M Y love

MARYHOWCOULDYOUBESOCRUELTOME

M Y loveMary how could you go

Around and hurt me so

I'd have tried so hard to please you baby

But I just can't seem to babyMary how could you go

Around and hurt me so

I'd have tried so hard to please you baby

But I just can't seem to babyMary how could you go

Around and hurt me so

I'd have tried so hard to please you baby

But I just can't seem to babyMary how could you go

Around and hurt me so

I'd have tried so hard to please you baby

But I just can't seem to babyMary how could you go

Around and hurt me so I'd have tried so hard to please you baby But I just can't seem to baby
