

We Were Us (feat. Miranda Lambert)

Keith Urban

Rearview crosses
Railroad ties
Oh, Hail Marys
Friday nights
Heartbeat baby
Low-beam lights

God, I miss when you were mine
Back when that song was a song
I could sing along without thinkin bout you every time it came on
Every beat, every line, every word, every time

When a road was a road

I could roll on through without wishin that empty seat was you

Money was gas, dreams were dust

Love was fast and we were us

Shotgun sunset

A cool mint kiss

Backseat promise

Breaking it

Floorboard feeling

County lines

God, I miss when you were mine
Back when that song was a song
I could sing along without thinkin bout you every time it came on
Every beat, every line, every word, every time

When a road was a road

I could roll on through without wishin that empty seat was you

Money was gas, dreams were dust

Love was fast and we were us
In a sleepy town, just jumping in

Far too young to know that summers end

We were us, we can't go back

It's what it is, but God I miss

Back when that song was a song

I could sing along without thinkin bout you every time it came on
Every beat, every line, every word, every time

When a road was a road

I could roll on through without wishin that empty seat was you

Money was gas, dreams were dust

Love was fast and we were us
Every beat, every line, every word, every single time

I just close my eyes and youre ridin shotgun

You and me, baby, on the run

I can feel your heartbeat, baby

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>

