

Soul Survivor

Rita Ora

It's been seven long years fighting for your attention
Manipulated by fear and misdirection
Wrapped in your ugly chains, swore you'd rise me to heaven Brought me nothing but pain, was that your intention? Damn frustrating that you think I could never make it
Look who's standing right in front of you
Yes, it's me, what you doing?
Did you think you would see me ruined?
After all the shit that I've been through I'm a soul survivor, I made it through the fire
I started with nothing, I've got nothing to lose
I'm a soul survivor, I made it through the fire
I started with nothing, I've got nothing to lose
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Gonna see your mistake, get it out in the open
And if you wanna play, let's get this rolling Damn frustrating that you think I could never make it
Look who's standing right in front of you
Yes, it's me, what you doing?
Did you think you would see me ruined?
After all the shit that I've been through I'm a soul survivor, I made it through the fire
I started with nothing, I've got nothing to lose
I'm a soul survivor, I made it through the fire
I started with nothing, I've got nothing to lose Ooh, ooh, ooh, yeah
Ooh, ooh, ooh, yeah
Ooh, ooh, ooh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Damn frustrated that you think I could never make it
Look who's standing right in front of you Cause I'm a soul survivor, I made it through the fire
I started with nothing, I've got nothing to lose
I'm a soul survivor, I made it through the fire
I started with nothing, I've got nothing to lose
I'm a soul survivor, I made it through the fire
