

Meant To Love You (feat. ROUXN)

Jauz

Always talk and never listen
Wonder what I do this for
Maybe I need some thing different
Maybe I need some thing more
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
Oh, you hung me out to dry
And I only meant to love you
Oh, you hung me out to dry
And I only meant to love you
And I only meant to
And I only meant to
And I only meant to love you
(And I only meant to love you)
(And I only meant to love you)Baby you can keep your distance
I ain't gonna try no more
Maybe if you had consistency
Maybe I'd feel like I'll yours
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
Oh, you hung me out to dry
And I only meant to love you(And I only meant to love you)Oh, you hung me out to dry
And I only meant to love you
Always talk and never listen
Wonder what I do this for
Maybe I need some thing different
Maybe I need some thing more
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
Oh you hung me out to dry
And I only meant to love you
Oh you hung me out to dry
And I only meant to love you
(And I only meant to)
And I only meant to
(And I only meant to)

And I only meant to
(And I only meant to)
And I only meant to love you
Oh you hung me out to dry
And I only meant to love you
And I only meant to
And I only meant to
And I only meant to love you(And I only meant to love you)
(And I only meant to love you)
(And I only meant to love you)
(And I only meant to love you)Baby you can keep your distance
I ain't gonna try no more
Maybe if you had consistency
Maybe I'd feel like I'll yours
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
I think you've gone a bit too far
Oh you hung me out to dry
And I only meant to love you.
