

In My Bed

Sabrina Carpenter

Little things become everything
When you wouldn't think that they would
Little things weigh so heavily
Take my energy 'til it's gone
I wanna be alone
But all these emotions
Wanna be alone
I'm tryin', I'm tryin'
I'm tryin' to stop the
Losing my control
Hypothetically, I could let it go easy
But I'm still, I'm still
I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
I'm not usually like this
I'm not usually like this
But I'm still, I'm still
I'm still in my bed
Turn this pillowcase
To the cooler side
Give me something I can't feel
'Cause I wanna turn a page
Wanna rearrange
Slam the doors wide open in my mind
I wanna be alone
But all these emotions
Wanna be alone
I'm tryin', I'm tryin'
I'm tryin' to stop the
Losing my control
Hypothetically, I could let it go easy
But I'm still, I'm still
I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
I'm not usually like this
I'm not usually like this
But I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
But I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
But I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
Something chemical inside me messin' with my mind

And I can't help but feel like
I'm feeling like someone else
Something animal inside me trying to remind me
There's no need to worry
About it and lose myself But I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
But I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it I'm still in my bed, I'm still in my bed
But I'm still, I'm still, I'm still
In my bed about it
I'm still in my bed, I'm still in my
But I'm still, I'm still, I'm still in my bed
