

Entertainer

James Kennedy

The lights go down once more
And I'm packed away within these walls
And it's not like before
When we all thought it was real
What started with meaning
Caught on fire
And became a smokescreen
I'm your entertainer
I'll wash you in my shine
And once I've entertained ya
I'm hanging out to dry
We've got a one dimensional, expectational
Temporary love
I'm your entertainer
So maybe for a while, we can both pretend
I live on plastic screens, magazines
Fantasies and dreams
But if you dare to see my reality
I could use the company
What started with feeling
Became a machine
And I'm lost as sea
I'm your entertainer
I wash you in my shine
And once I've entertained ya
I'm hanging out to dry
It's a one directional, insta-ttainable
Superficial love
I'm your entertainer
So maybe for a while, we can both pretend
I can be anything
But I can't be anything else
When you're on top of the world
The only way is down
Will anyone catch me
I'm your entertainer
'But I feed on it'
I wash you in my shine
'Like you feed on me'
And once I've entertained ya
'But I feed on it'
I'm hanging out to dry
'Like you feed on me'
Oh I'm your entertainer
I'll wash you in my shine
I'm hanging out to dry
It's irresistible, so sensational

We can't get enough
I'm your entertainer
And I wish that tonight would never end
