

Godawful Things

Lake Street Dive

Only a devil would be so bold
To break a heart like yours
No, no
So cold
But you've been there before
You're in a state of disrepair
You're an answer to my prayers
Well, well
I'll be there
Yeahyeah
Well, thank the good lord
For those godawful things
That brought you
Brought you right back to me
Well, thank the good lord
For those godawful things
That brought you
Brought you right back to me
Only an angel will know there's love
To find behind closed doors
In time you'll know
When you're ready for more
Though you have not a lot to say
Let me roll the stone away
Through you I am saved
Well, thank the good lord
For those godawful things
That brought you
Brought you right back to me
Well, thank the good lord
For those godawful things
That brought you
Brought you right back to me
Well, thank the good lord
For those godawful things
That brought you
Brought you right back to me
Well, thank the good lord
For those godawful things
That brought you
Brought you right back to me
Now thank the good lord

For those godawful things
That brought you
Brought you right back to me
Well
Thank
The good Lord
For those godawful things
That brought you
Brought you to me
Brought you to me
