

Nothing Stopping Me (feat. Kat Nestel)

Vicetone

Just when I realize
That you been shouting me out
I start to reach for the sky and nothing's falling down. Everybody knows, how the story goes
But fairy tales have been lying to me
Every time I try, you just run and hide
Now I'm finally feeling free. Tell me can you see me now
While I rise above the crowd
Who would know I'd make it out
Your broken world (No) You thought you tore me down
I'm not giving up, now you know
So tell me can you see me now
And nothing's stopping me now!
(And nothing's stopping me now x2) Now I know my feet
They won't fail me now
So thanks for showing me
All that I am about Everybody knows, how the story goes
But fairy tales have been lying to me
Every time I try, you just run and hide
Now I'm finally feeling free. Tell me can you see me now
While I rise above the crowd
Who would know I'd make it out
Your broken world (No) You thought you tore me down
I'm not giving up, now you know
So tell me can you see me now
And nothing's stopping me now!
(And nothing's stopping me now) So can you see me, now (ow)?
Can you see me, now (ow)
Tell me can you see me now
While I rise above the crowd
Who would know I'd make it out
Your broken world (No)
You thought you tore me down
I'm not giving up, now you know
So tell me can you see me now, rising above,
And nothing's stopping me now!
