

Lingering

Sheppard

Everybody's got somebody to see
Everybody's got somebody but me
Everybody's got a place to go on a Saturday night
But I'm on my own
Ta-ta-ta-ta-la-la-la!

Everybody's got a bed for two
Without another mine is wasting room
I'm not afraid to start looking for you
I'm just afraid I'll be out while you're passing through, oh
Ta-ta-ta-ta-la-la-la!

I'll be waiting, holding the ground
Cause I know you'll be coming around
I could take a blow from cupid's bow
If it helps you find me, baby!
Oh I'll just stay here lingering for you
Ta-ta-ta-ta-la-la-la!
Lingering for you!

Ta-ta-ta-ta-la-la-la! Everybody's got a hand to hold
Without another mine is getting cold.
And if I never leave, I'll never miss you
It's just a matter of time before you pass through.
I'll be waiting, holding the ground
Cause I know you'll be coming around
I could take a blow from cupid's bow
If it helps you find me, baby!
Oh I'll just stay here lingering for you
Ta-ta-ta-ta-la-la-la!
Lingering for you!

Ta-ta-ta-ta-la-la-la! I'll whisper, I'll scream
Either way you'll remain in a dream.
But I foresee the day,
When the loneliness will start to decay.
You can take for granted the seed I've planted
But soon that, baby, will grow
And in no time honey I'll find this funny,
Cause I'll be running the show, show, yeah!
The show, yeah! I'll be waiting, holding my ground
Cause I know you'll be coming around
I'll defy the night and shine beams of light,
If it helps you find me baby
Oh, I'll be waiting, holding the ground
Cause I know you'll be coming around

I could take a blow from cupid's bow
If it helps you find me, baby!
Oh I'll just stay here lingering for you
Uh, uh, uh
Uh, uh, uh
Uh, uh, uh
