

Keep You On My Side

CHVRCHES

Everyone sees, but only I know
Nothing to lose, nothing to save to make a whole
What if I should make a loss?
Hold up both my hands, my fingers crossed I don't sleep well, laying low
Never keepin' up, never lettin' go
What if I should look away?
Every human touch will be repayed Without restraint
Within our veins
We bide our time, stay afloat
Keepin' the sun up off our bones
I never asked to know, I never planned
Till it was swept out of my hand
We bide our time, stay afloat
Keepin' the dying light exposed
I never asked to know, I never lied
So I could keep you on my side We feel the same
Without restraint
We feel the same
Within our veins Everyone comes, but only I stay
Nowhere to look, nowhere to turn to fall away
What if I should call it off?
Hold up my demands with my heart uncrossed
I don't sleep well, laying low
Never keepin' up, never lettin' go
What if I should let it fade
Every human touch will be repayed Without restraint
Within our veins We bide our time, stay afloat
Keepin' the sun up off our bones
I never asked to know, I never planned
Till it was swept out of my hand
We bide our time, stay afloat
Keepin' the dying light exposed
I never asked to know, I never lied
So I could keep you on my side We feel the same
Without restraint
We feel the same
Within our veins We feel the same
(Payin' back all our chances, payin' back what we took)
Without restraint
(Payin' back all our chances, payin' back what we took)
We feel the same
(Payin' back all our chances, payin' back what we took)

Within our veins
(Payin' back all our chances, payin' back what we took) We bide our time, stay afloat
Keepin' the sun up off our bones
I never asked to know, I never planned
Till it was swept out of my hand
We bide our time, stay afloat
Keepin' the dying light exposed
I never asked to know, I never lied
So I could keep you on my side We feel the same
Without restraint
We feel the same
Within our veins We feel the same
(Payin' back all our chances, payin' back what we took)
Without restraint
(Payin' back all our chances, payin' back what we took)
We feel the same
(Payin' back all our chances, payin' back what we took)
Within our veins
(Payin' back all our chances, chances, chances, chances)
(Chances, chances, chances, chances, chances, chances, chances)
